One of the mob was dangerously wounded by the sheriff. Stevens was pardoned out of the penitentiary for a previous murder last winter.

Failures.

New York, Dec. 9.—Opdyke & Co.'s liabilities are stated to be a little over $100,000. Only about 500 shares of stock are involved in the failure. On the stock exchange the failure was said to have resulted from the inability to renew loans on securities which had previously been accepted.

Kerranville, Pa., Dec. 9.—An execution has been issued by James S. Reed, trustee against F. B. Langhlin, proprietor of the Hewanston furnace, for $30,000, in accordance with the judgment confessed last Saturday.

CAIRO, Ill., Dec. 9.—A wild train on the Illinois Central coming south this morning broke in two on a hill near Dongola. The rear part ran into the forward part of the train and demolished several freight cars, killing the brakeman, Dougherty, whose head was severed from the body. No others were hurt.

Another Fast Train Over the Pittsburgh Road.

Pittsburg, Dec. 9.—On and after the 21st inst. the Pittsburgh and Western railroad will run a fast passenger train between this city and Chicago. The train will be equipped with sleeping cars and all the conveniences of modern travel.

The Cannibals Sentenced.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Captains Dudley and mate of the wrecked yacht Mignette, who were found guilty of murder in killing the boy Parker for food to keep themselves alive, were to-day sentenced to death. It is believed that they will certainly be pardoned.

A Double Case.

St. Louis, Dec. 9.—J. B. Johnson, a convict in the penitentiary at Jefferson City, who set fire to the prison shops February 23d, 1883, causing a conflagration which cost the state about $200,000, was tried in the Cole county circuit court for arson yesterday and was convicted and sentenced to ten additional years in the penitentiary. He now has about twenty years to serve.

They Simply Quarreled.

The War on Paper.

PARIS, Dec. 9.—The National says: "The negotiations between Li Pung Chang, viceroy of Poo Chi Li, and the French consul at Tien Tsin have ceased since the refusal which the French received at Tien Tsin."

Havard's agency says the negotiations between the Earl of Granville, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs, and the Marquis of Teling, the Chinese ambassador, with a view of settling the Franco-Chinese difficulty have been temporarily interrupted, owing to the indisposition of the Chinese diplomat, who is suffering from a cold.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—The Vienna correspondent of the Standard learns from some source that the empress of China will summon the council of war within a few days. The reason for the renewal of peace negotiations will then be given and the result of the interview between Earl Granville and the Marquis Teling be stated.

A Young Lady's Gift to the Catholic Church.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 9.—It is stated this morning that Miss Mary C. Caldwell, a young lady of New York city, who was in Baltimore during the session of the plenary council, offered to give $30,000 as a foundation for a Catholic university to be established was considered by the council and her offer was accepted. A board of incorporators will be named during the ensuing year. The plan of a university for the higher education of the Catholic ministry, will be considered. A committee of twelve bishops and laymen, with archbishop Gibbons at its head, was appointed by the council to take charge of the matter. The new university will be located in New York city.

Non-Episcopal churches will be represented unofficially.

Strangled in a Cistern.

The Wagon Workers.

SHARON, Pa., Dec. 9.—The Sharon Iron company's mill has resumed operation with indications of a steady run through the winter. The same company has started up one of their blast furnaces which have been closed for several months.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—In the senate Hale called up the naval appropriation bill, which at the close of the last session was in the hands of a conference committee, as to which that committee reported as being unable to agree. He moved the senate further report on its amendments and ordered a new conference. So ordered.

The senate then took up the Oregon Central land grant forfeiture bill, but by a vote of 29 yeas to 30 nays refused to consider it. It was then decided by a party vote, yeas 34, nays 25, to take up the bill for the admission of Dakota, the republicans voting yes and the democrats no. The Dakota bill thus secured the right of way for 2 o'clock.

The Texas Pacific railroad land grant forfeiture bill was made a special order for Thursday next.

The bill to provide for the sale of the Cherokee reservation passed. The bill to amend sections of the revised statutes which prohibited the delivery of registered letters and payment of money orders to lottery companies, passed. The amendment consists in striking out the word "fraudulent," so as to cover lotteries generally and not merely fraudulent lotteries.

The bill passed providing for the ascertainment of claims of American citizens for spoils by the French prior to the 31st of July, 1801.

The Dakota bill was then taken up.

THE HOUSE.

Chalmers introduced a bill to restore a republican form of government to the state of Mississippi. Referred. Some derisive laughter from the democratic side greeted the reading of the title of this bill. It provides the congressional and the state elections shall be held the same day in that state. Each candidate for congress shall be permitted to appoint in writing one inspector and one clerk at each voting precinct who shall be permitted to witness all the proceedings. It is made a crime punishable with imprisonment for any one to assault, intimidate, threaten or insult any inspector or clerk.

The consideration of the State Commerce bill being resumed, Barkdale addressed the house in a constitutional argument in support of the right of congress to legislate on the subject.

NOTES.

A Broken Heart.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 9.—A special from White Water, Wis., denies the story that Nettie Horan, before dying, confessed to having poisoned her father, mother and two sisters. It is declared she died of lamentation brought on by excessive grief over the death of other members of the family.

Six Persons Cremated.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Dec. 9.—Early this morning three blocks of houses at Trenchon, a small mining patch near here, were destroyed by fire. The First Arrest in the Brand-Leman Case.

CHICAGO, December 8.—Joseph C. Mackin, secretary of the Cook county Democratic central committee, was arrested this evening on the complaint of A. M. Day, secretary of the citizens committee, which has undertaken to unearth the frauds in the sixth legislative district of this state. Henry W. Leman and Rudolph Brand, are the Republican and Democratic candidates respectively. This is the case, which the federal grand jury have been investigating. The complaint charges Mackin with aiding some unknown person or persons, about November 21, in substituting over 200 fraudulent ballots for a like number of genuine ones cast at the second precinct of the Eighteenth ward at the election of November 4 last. Mackin was taken before United States Commissioner Hoyne and held in $10,000 bail for a preliminary examination on next Saturday. W. C. McDonald and E. J. Lehman became his bondsmen. This is the first arrest in this "cause celebre."

NEWARK, N. J., December 8.—The centennial of the Presbyterian church at Coldwell, this county, was celebrated yesterday, and a letter was read from Governor Cleveland, whose father was pastor of the church when Mr. Cleveland was born. Four Men Killed in an Explosion.

SHAMOKIN, Penn., December 8.—An explosion occurred in the Clay shaft here to-day, causing the death of Richard Tuckett, Peter Kohl, Joseph Duzman, John Fox and Thomas Williams. All leave families. In November the collections of current taxes were $44,662.62 and in delinquent taxes $2,289.30. During the two months mentioned county orders to the amount of about $10,000 were cashed. The balance in hand is to make settlement with the state treasurer after which settlement's call will be made for county orders.

QUITE SENSATIONAL.

Twenty Heads to Drop from the Nickel Plate Knife for Theft—Prominent Citizens Threatened.

For a month past the officers of the Nickel Plate road have been investigating affairs here. First, men were hastily summoned to Cleveland and questioned by General Manager Williams, who imposed the profoundest secrecy. No one could then guess the purpose of the inquiry, but matters are now clearer and THE SENTINEL can enlighten interested parties and esteemed contemporaries who are hinting at the affair. Last week General Attorney Hall and Superintendent of Motive Power McKinzie, of the Nickel Plate, came here from Chicago via the Pittsburgh road. The gentlemen were driven to 105 Wilt street, where later thirty-six Nickel Plate employees and officials stood on the green cloth. The purpose of the examination was to discover who was responsible for the theft of coal, wood and other articles in this vicinity. The officers said the company had lost two or three car loads of coal, a few hundred cords of wood and merchandise in transit over the line. The object was to fasten the guilt for dismissal from the service and prosecution. This information comes from Joe Gruber, a Nickel Plate engineer, who says he was examined by the officials. The Nickel Plate men can now speak.

A MANIC AT LARGE.

Joe Giant Terrifying the Inhabitants of Jefferson Township—The Sheriff Appointed to.

Citizens of Jefferson township yesterday notified Sheriff Nelson that Joe Giant, the maniac Frenchman, was again at large and a terror to the people of the township. Giant is a powerful fellow and loses his senses at each change of the moon. When the malady affects him badly he roams about his neighborhood night and day. He is a dangerous man and puts no value on life. It is not safe to venture out at night for fear of being strangled, and altogether it is not pleasant to live in Mr. Giant's neighborhood. The fellow has been in jail several times, but cannot be kept there on a simple charge of insanity. He will not be accepted of the state insane asylum, and unless his friends make application to put him in irons at the county asylum, he must remain as he is. It takes a dozen men to arrest the maniac, and a year or two ago he took possession of a saw mill and with an axe in his hands held the premises from his pursuers until weakened by starvation at the end of five days.

THE CITY.

Superintendent Law is in Chicago.
There is a big camp of gypsies near Avilla.

Today is pay day in Murray's and Bass' foundries.

Frank Shurick has gone south on a timber hunting expedition.
Hay is worth $7 and $8 per ton and wood from $4 to $5 per cord.

T. L. Lutz will open a crockery store at No. 12 East Columbia street.

The drug firm of Neishung & Bond has been dissolved, Mr. Bond retiring.

H. G. Wagner and wife will pass the winter in the south. They start Friday for Florida.

Mrs. Annie Pixley, nee Annie Davis, formerly of this city, is the mother of a fine little lady.

The Misses Powers, of Andrews, are visiting friends and relatives in this city and at New Haven.

Trustee Gaffney has sent photographs of his school houses to the New Orleans World's fair.

There was no police court this morning and the mayor and prosecutor gathered to glance viciously at the lobby.

Rev. Bishop Dwenger and his theologian, Rev. Father Walters, are at New York City. They are expected in this city Friday.

Mr. Shober's band association is in session here to-day. This organization is not very robust yet but will develop into great importance.

Officer Henry Lapp found the front door of A. C. Trentman's grocery house open last night. A careless employee neglected to turn the latch.

A. C. Kant exhibits a French bique marked $15, which is an exact counterpart of one marked $30 in Schweitzer &
Kase's show-windows at Chicago.

Four Arabians are in the city selling bonds. They are in destitute circumstances and poorly clad and are seeking sufficient money to get back to the east.

Every day able bodied men apply to Trustee Gaffney for admission to the poor house. They can find no work and must either go "over the hills" or starve.

Marshal Dick Meyer is a very popular gentleman and as efficient an officer as the people ever had. Mr.
Meyer will not be opposed for the position
he now fills so acceptably.

The Fort Wayne Cadet company will meet to-night at 76 Calhoun street. We suggest the lovers of the market change their name to "The Bond Cadets," in honor of Col. Jared D. Bond, who will make the company live.

O. L. Perry and John McCain entertained James O'Neill and other members of the "Monte Cristo" party last night after the show. Mr. O'Neill met the newspaper men. He is personally a nice fellow and loves to pull a cork.

Huntington Herald: "On Sunday, at Fort Wayne, occurred the sudden death of Maria Kearns, aged twenty years, of consumption. The corpse will be brought to this city to-morrow for burial, the interment being in the Catholic cemetery."

"Nobody's Claim" was advertised through an illuminated wagon last night. This is cheap business but does more harm than good. In many cities that racket would kill a show, because people begin to look to newspapers for advice.

Miss Alice Robinson, who has been the guest of Miss Mary Randall, Miss Ellie Chittenden and Mrs. Hugh Mo-Culloch Bond, returned to her home at Dubuque, Iowa, last night. Miss Robinson is quite a pretty girl and has admirers here.

The Indianapolis News says that the name of Dr. John S. Irwin, of Fort Wayne, who has for many years been prominently engaged in educational work, is favorably mentioned in connection with the presidency of the State University at Bloomington.

A young lady was insulted on the street last night by a young man, who followed her to her home, continuing his insults. Just as she was about to enter the house she turned and dealt the ruffian a blow in the face, which felled him to the ground. His name is unknown, else it would appear in this article.

The fellow who attempted to burglarize the grocery store of Salvador Peltier, near New Haven, last week, is known and he came to this city yesterday to have a bullet pulled from his arm. The fellow sent here to watch the man gave the snap away and the burglar skipped.
Mr. Peltier is confident he hit the fellow and those who know Peltier when he kept a road house on the Bluffton road,
will agree that he is a dead shot.

anniversary of the battle of Stone river.

The supply water pipe from the engine house to the St. Joe river is now laid to the well on the bank of that stream. The river runs high now and the well overflows. The water as filter-of the work to-night.

The Henderson "Uncle Tom" party that played here week before last went to pieces the other day at Dunkirk, Ohio, where the baggage of the tough show is held for a board bill. The young fellow who played Marks No. 2, walked into Fort Wayne this morning and is interviewing his friends. He says the whole party had to walk out of Dunkirk.

Yesterday two men went to the home of Fred Tagtmeyer, on South Harrison street, and represented to Mrs. Tagtmeyer that her husband sent them for a wagon, which stood in a shed. She permitted them to cart the vehicle away, but Mr. Tagtmeyer knows nothing of the arrangement and mourns the loss of his wagon. The vehicle was pulled south on Fairfield avenue. Mr. Tagtmeyer is a clerk with Joseph Mommer, Jr., and has notified the officers of his loss.

For some time past the Wabash passenger conductors were building air castles and speculating how they would spend the $20 or $75 a month raise they were expecting. But the bubble has burst and they have received word that on and after January 1st, each passenger train will be furnished with an inspector and the modus operandi will be as follows: First the conductor goes through the train, takes up the tickets and gives each passenger a check. He is followed by the inspector who takes up this check and substitutes another. The conductor then comes through again and takes up this check. The checks are then sent to the auditor of the road, who tallies
one with the other.

No one can be ill if the blood is pure.
Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla root have long been recognized as blood purifiers.
Don't be misled by the advertisements of the many quack bitters, but carefully use Dr. Quessett's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and you will live to a good old age free from all the distress of mind and body. Many of our best citizens who long suffered from bad blood indicated by weak kidneys, indigestion, sores, ulcers, etc., owe their recovery to the use of this remedy.

LOCAL NEWS.

See Ward's Christmas Gifts.
For economy and comfort we use Hood's Sarsaparilla," writes an intelligent, Buffalo, N. Y., lady. 100 doses one dollar.
Warren Fisher, Jr., is suggested by Luck for postmaster general.
Somebody says, "To bear is to conquer our foes." It may be if the trouble is in the mind—but if the body feels cold and rigors come on with pain in the head, back, joints and joints, nauseous vomiting of bilious matter, don't think of bearing bilious fever, but cure it at once with Victoria Pills. All druggists keep them.
Many of the hack drivers of Boston now wear a handsome livery.
B. H. Douglas & Sons' Capsicum Cough Drops are manufactured by themselves and are the result of over forty years' experience in compounding cough mixtures.
There were 600 freshmen at Oxford this term—quite an unprecedented number.
Jed Origware, East Saginaw, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism—feet swollen so that he could not wear boots and could only hobble around on crutches. After taking half a bottle of Atliophores he said: "Have laid crutches aside and can wear my boots with perfect ease. I have not had any pain since, and would not take $20 for the balance of the bottle if I could not get more."

AMUSEMENTS.
"Monte Cristo."
This powerful melo-drama was produced at the Temple opera house last night to the largest assembly of the season. The magnificent scenery of the company was placed with the greatest effect and its elegance surpassed all expectation. The prison scene approached too near the foot lights, but this was to permit the ocean scene. James O'Neill is a great actor, but will essay his part with more effect when he can tame his gestures. His company is superb and strong all the way through. From this city the company went to Indianapolis for a two nights' stand and a matinee. Then they go to Louisville and later to New Orleans.

"NOBODY'S CLAIM."
This popular melo-drama will be witnessed at the Academy to-night under the most favorable auspices. Joe Dowling and Sadie Hasson are as clever as they are described and the entertainment can be recommended. The prices are popular.

HON. DANIEL DOUGHERTY.
The lecture of Daniel Dougherty at Library hall last night was one of the great events in the amusements history of Fort Wayne. Mr. Dougherty is too well known as an orator to require eulogistic praise. His wonderful oratorical power was admirably displayed as he illustrated the conception of his subject, "Oratory," and which he used to convey his ideas of the qualities a true orator must possess. From the more serious consideration of his subject he turned to the humorous side and with much wit and power depicted the trials of a would-be orator struggling for recognition. Mr. Dougherty's fame has been justly earned and his audience last night, which he carried with him at will, will vouch for his power and his attainments.

DATES.
"Article 47," with Helen Blythe and Will Friend in the cast, will be seen at the Academy Thursday night.
Mortimer Murdoch's great spectacular melo-drama, "A Hoop of Gold," will be produced for the first time here at the Temple opera house Friday night. The company is a good one and the play has a great reputation.

Sol D. Bayless lodge elected the following officers last night: C. B. Oakley, master; H. Keplinger, senior warden; M. L. Graffe, junior warden; W. H. Davis, treasurer; Wm. E. Hood, secretary; R. C. Bell, John Gilbert and Wm. Lyne, trustees.

The River Tiber.
The "Yellow Tiber" rolls its muddy waters through the city of Rome, at times overflowing the lower part of the city. It breeds malaria and imperils the health of all who visit the city. Brown's Iron Bitters will conquer malarial fevers quicker and more thoroughly than any other remedy. Enos Hite, 33 Court street, Indianapolis, says: "It cured me of chills and fever after all else failed."

Pond's Extract and Quinine.
Although different as medicines, there is much in the history and discovery of these two great specifics that is similar. When it was found that the extract of peruvian bark was specific for fever and malaria great was the rejoicing. Equally pleased was the medical world when Pond's extract was found to be as sure a specific for all forms of inflammation, hemorrhages, boils, burns, sprains, piles and sore throats.

NOTICE.

State of Indiana, City of Fort Wayne.

To the Treasurer of said City.

Whereas, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, at a regular session, held on the 25th day of August, 1884, approved and confirmed a contract prior made by and between said city, and William Horstman, contractor, for grading and paving with brick the sidewalk on the south side of Summit street, from Ohio street to McCulloch street.

And whereas, an estimate was duly made by the City Civil Engineer, by the direction of said Common Council, on the 14th day of October, 1884, for the sum of fifteen dollars as the amount due from Thomas Hogarth, the owner of lot numbered twenty-three (23), McCulloch's first addition to the City of Fort Wayne.

And whereas, at a meeting of the Common Council aforesaid, held on the 25th day of November, 1884, the Clerk of said City reported to the Common Council the amount of William Horstman, the said contractor, showing to the satisfaction of the Council that said work had been done according to contract, and that said estimate or assessment had been properly made, and that the said estimate remains unpaid;

And whereas, said Council, at said meeting last aforesaid, ordered and directed a precept to issue for the collection of said sidewalk assessment, which precept was duly issued on the 28th day of November, 1884;

And whereas, the said Thomas Hogarth is a non-resident of the city of Fort Wayne, Ind.;

Notice is hereby given to the said Thomas Hogarth that unless said assessment with interest thereon from date of estimate together with all cost and accruing cost are paid within twenty (20) days from this date, I will proceed to sell said lot No. twenty-three (23), McCulloch's first addition, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said assessment with interest and cost.
